Mrs. Vanfleet's Divorce.

Yesterday was a very quiet day in the courts. Chief Justice Merritt held court for a brief period in the fore-noon. The divorce suit of Mary Ann Valleet against Elias Vanneet came up. The plaintiff and her daughter were sworn and testified that Elias had gone away, deserted wife and family, and had sever returned. The decree was granted.

afternoon by Commissioner Morris Sommers, charging Gray with robbery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ware of Hunter's precinct, were the complaining witnesses. The circumstances of the case are as follows: About 9 o'clock on the evening of November 30 there came a knock at the dear of Lr. Ware, and on the door being opened a man steppen in, flasher a pistol and informed Mr. Ware that he wanted the latter's money. Mr. Ware replied that he had no money. The hold-up made answer that Mc. Ware had money in the sum of at least 20 and he wanted it. The $20 was produced and the man went away.

Mrs. Ware identified Gray as the man and says he knew of her having the $20. On the day before the robbery she was driving for the city to Hunter's Point and her vehicle stuck in the mud.

She made a bargain with Gray to pull the wagon out and take it over the worst road, paying him $1.50 for this service. On the way along she bargained to buy his horse for $11 for which he had at first asked $30. The next day she came if down, got the horse, paid the $11 and in doing so revealed $30 besides. That night the robbery occurred.

Everything is on such a tension that the real news features of this case will have to be published after some conclusion has been reached. There is some startling information and men in high positions are acting in contradistinction to a liberal sense of justice and right.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 .- A special to a local paper from Topeka, Kam., says:

The Kansas delegation in attendance at the Million club meeting at Chicago Monday night, returned today, and many were the criticisms of ex-Senator Ingalls for fallure to be present. The date of the meeting was fixed by Ingalls himself three weeks ago. Senator Ifgalls telegraphed that he was snow-bound at Janesville, Wis. To fully satisfy themselves the Kansas politicians in Chicago ascertained that there was no snow blockade at Janesville, and that Ingalls could have been present if he so desired. It is said the ex-Senator refused to speak because the Million club invited J. R. Burton, Ingall's only competitor for the United States senatorship. Several prominent Republican leaders, formerly for Ingalls, have since declared for Burton.

NOT A TRUST.

Just Merely an "Association of Ice Dealers."

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 .- A combination, or what is known as an association among ice dealers in this city, is assured. Those who deal in the cooling substance admit this and say that they think if the association is not formed, several of the smaller companies will have to retire from business. Some years ago there was an association among ice dealers, the object of which was to keep up prices; but the law against trusts was passed. ject of which was to keep up prices; but the law against trusts was passed and the association wound up its affairs. A movement to reorganize this combine under a different name is on foot. Ice men, it is deckared, will be more independent than has been their wont, and housekeepers will have to do more coaxing than hitherto in order to get ice delivered, and altogether it will be more pleasant for the dealers. The price will be up, way up, so those who make a study of such affairs declare. This will all take place during the winter and everything will be ready for the innocent purchaser by summer.

Managers of ice companies smiled yesterday when they talked of the in-creased price of their products next year. Visions of the days "before and during the war," when the price was as high as $1 and never lower than 20c. a hundred, dwelt in their imagination. As they told how it all came about these ice company magnates halled with delight the prospective return of "living" prices.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The date of the elevation of Mgr. Satolli to the cardinalate has been postponed from the 15th to a date not yet announced. This was made necessary as a result of cable information from Rome that Marquis Sacripanti bearing the bereita, sailed today from Genoa on the steamship Fulda. As she is not due until the 15th and may be delayed beyond that date a postponement was imperative. Dr. Rooker, secretary to Mgr. Satolli, went to Baltimore tonight to confer with Cardinal Gibbons, when a later day for the ceremony will be determined upon. The invitations for the 15th had been engrayed and half of them sent, so that the officials of the delegation desire wide publicity of the change in order to avoid confusion. SATOLLUS ELEVATION.
